The Bonington had very unpleasant weather while at Hilo. It rained—as it only can do in Hilo—for twelve days. A reception was given on board on Saturday, and on Monday the Hiloites entertained Minister and Mrs. Willis at the Spreckels Hall, where a large number of people were present, and a most enjoyable time was had.

For the Sick.

The Hospital Flower Mission has done much good, and the ladies who have charge of it have done it in an inostentatious manner, and never paraded their work before the public. Only those who have laid sick and lonesome at the Queen's Hospital can realize the cheer which the appearance of the kind ladies with the bright and fragrant flowers gives to the patient. The ladies, who have devoted their time to this noble purpose, have decided to arrange a fair, the results of which will be used for the support of a bed at the hospital, under the auspices of the Flower Mission.

Mrs. F. M. Swanzy has been tireless in her efforts in arranging the fair, and it has now been decided that it will take place on the 26th instant, in the evening, at her residence.

A magic lantern show will be one of the features of the evening, and there will be a fancy table, candy booth, flower stall, etc., etc.

People interested in the worthy object are asked to donate ice cream, flowers, fancy articles, etc., etc., which will be gratefully received by the following committees:

Refreshment Committee—Mrs. T. R. Walker, Miss Pindar and Mrs. Andrew Fuller.

Fancy Table Committee—Mrs. von Holt and Mrs. Birnie.

Flower Table Committee—Mrs. Eleanor Graham and Mrs. H. F. Renjes.

Candy Table Committee—Mrs. F. R. Day and Miss Lewers.

Committee on Tickets—Mrs. C. L. Wight and Miss Castle.

A MISERABLE RACE

People Interested in the Bicycle Contest Indignant

The Advertiser contest, ostensibly for the purpose of encouraging road racing, created considerable interest in the community, and as days went by the sale of the paper offering a prize of a bicycle to the best rider of the three to be selected by the vote of the public increased, and many of those interested in the contest spent money to obtain votes for their choice.

Angus, Sylvester, and King were the popular youngsters chosen to enter in the race and to compete for the prize. The three names were generally satisfactory and the public felt confident that an excellent race would take place.

The race was advertised to take place last Saturday, but owing to the rain and muddy road it was decided to postpone it until yesterday, to give the riders the best possible chance to show what time they they could make.

The result yesterday showed that it was unnecessary to change the original date. The boys couldn't possibly have made worse time riding through mud and rain than they did yesterday on an excellent road in fine weather.

Thirty-seven and three-fourths minutes is the time given for the winner, Mr. Angus, who is entitled to select and buy a bicycle at the expense of the Advertiser. The distance has been made by the riders while training in 27 to 29 minutes, and we think it an insult to the public to have fooled it in the manner done yesterday.

It is true that no time limit was set for the winner. The management of the race undoubtedly thought that the competitors would do their best, and that it was unnecessary to make a limit to gain the prize. The public generally felt that way, and it was conceded that a fair race would take place, and each rider would do his very best.

We do not know the reason why the boys spoiled a good day's sport, but we do know that it looked "funny" to say the least, to see the three competitors ride to Waikiki at leisure chatting pleasantly to each other and only on the homestretch indulge in an occasional spurt of a rather mild and insipid nature. And that, while several hundred people patiently waited with their watches in their hands wondering after the 27 minutes had passed what had become of the riders.

Angus overtook Sylvester a few rods from the line although the young Portuguese was in the lead all along the homestretch and easily could have kept his position if he hadn't been over confident. King has never claimed to be a racer and making a spurt too early was pumped out.

It is to be hoped that the next road race will be serious. If not, the public will do well in ignoring it and staying at home.
